

Project publication, project: EU Media

Editors:

Professor Dr Dr Gerhard E. Ortner

Professor Dr Thomas A Bauer

European Education With Multi Media

Multi media for intercultural dialogue as well as ethical and contemporary historical European education

1. European education and media

*Prof. Dr Dr Gerhard Ortner, FernUniversität Hagen, Freie Universität Berlin
Speechless European education (contribution Budapest, Mai 05)*

*Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien
Culture of diversity
A theoretical orientation for the cultural practice of social cooperation*

*Prof. Dr Dr Gerhard Ortner, FernUniversität Hagen, Freie Universität Berlin
Good things are doing us good! The pedagogical dilemma of ethical education
(contribution Berlin, June 2005)*

*Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien
Future competence – a new challenge for educational communication research. Studying the future. A theoretical concept for hermeneutical approach*

*Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien
Environmental ethics and media (contribution Berlin, June 2005)*

*Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien
Environmental ethics and media (ppt – transparencies for the contribution Berlin, June 2005)*

2. Challenges for a European media society: information, knowledge, competence

*Prof. Dr Dr Gerhard Ortner, FernUniversität Hagen, Freie Universität Berlin
Mass media and learning competence. The influence of asymmetrical mass media on the development of individual learning capacity*

*Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien
Changing communication cultures – value models and knowledge models of the media society*

Prof, Dr, Klaus Krippendorf, The Annenberg School for Communication, University of Pennsylvania

Information and cyberspace:
Re-embodying information theory

Bert Klauninger, Institute for design and effect research, TU Vienna
Cyberspace as a self-organizing system

Prof. Dr Klaus Fuchs-Kittowski, University of applied Sciences Berlin
Information in the context of the life. Genetic information, evolution, ontogenesis, internal information emergence and ethics

Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien
Has ethics a chance?
A theoretical analysis of the communicative character of ethics and the ethical character of communication in the context of education media

3. B- and elearning in Europe

Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien
Ethics of crisis and competence of crises. Media between crisis intervention and crisis of intervention. Theoretical annotations on the media character of crises and the crisis character of media

Prof. Dr Dr Gerhard Ortner, FernUniversität Hagen, Freie Universität Berlin
Who is learning? Old hats with fashionable arrangements or substantial innovation?
(contribution Vienna)

Prof. Dr Dr Gerhard Ortner, FernUniversität Hagen, Freie Universität Berlin
Country of the mountains. An outline of media pedagogics in Austria

Mag. Patrick Chab, Vienna
Euro cultural elearning. A statement on semantic reflections on the Euro culture term
(Statement Budapest)

Ádám Horváth, Ministry of Education, Hungary/It advisor, Ministry of Education, Hungary
Elearning in Hungary/State of elearning in Hungary (contribution Budapest, May 2005)

Ottó Hutter, Akademie der Wissenschaften, Budapest
Elearning in practice/elearning standards in practice (contribution Budapest, May 2005)

4. Multi media for intercultural dialogue and European education

Professor Dr Hemels, University of Amsterdam
Regulation, self regulation and media competence in the Netherlands. The development and public debate (contribution Limassol, Oct. 2005)

Marko Ivanisin, University maribor
Learning concepts as an instrument for regional development: Learning regions

Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien

Health ethics and health communication – a theoretical calculation – a theoretical calculation on a practical equation in the context of psycho-social consultation

Polzin, Manfred, Senior consultant International Affairs, Be Raad, The Dutch Council for Vocational and Adult Education

The Dutch VET system and the relation to the labour market

Dr Bernd Mikuszeit, Berlin; Dr Ute Szudra, Berlin; Dipl- Theol Dirk Relecke, Paderborn
Multi media for intercultural dialogue and contemporary European education

Ösz, Medlinda, Infinity Budapest
Learning habits of adults in Hungary

Verhoeff, Rose, Bond van Nederlands Volksuniversiteiten

How the volksuniversiteits deals with educational needs in a changing society/ VolksUNiversiteiten;

The national Dutch federation of “volksuniversiteiten” established in 1918 (contribution Amsterdam, Dec. 2004)

Lukács, Mirko, Teleac/NOT Amsterdam

Public opinion on broadcasting and education in the Netherlands (contribution Amsterdam, Dec, 2004)

(contribution Budapest; May 2004)

Winter, Antje; Huijnen, Pim, Deutschlandinstitut Amsterdam

Intercultural dialogue at the example of the Deutschland Institut in Amsterdam
 (contribution Amsterdam, Dec 2004 and Budapest, May 2005)

Aquitera, Miguel; Iranzo, Jose, Universiy Malaga

Computer games in Euro cultural education

5. Euro-cultural and ethical education in the media society

Professor Dr Thomas A. Bauer, Universität Wien

Media formation in the media society. A programme for competence: media for education – education for media

Prof. Dr Dr Gerhard Ortner, FernUniversität Hagen, Freie Universität Berlin

Ethic gets concrete in education:

Prolegomena for an educational criticism of the ethical education

Professor Dr Hemels, University of Amsterdam

RVU as a schools' radio in the Dutch civil society

Professor Dr Hemels, University of Amsterdam

Blended learning in The Netherlands by the schools' radio Teleac/NOT*

Teleac/NOT, Wilma de Boer-Leijnsma (editor)

The educational broadcasting company Teleac/NOT in The Netherlands

Helga Strack, Infinity Budapest
About life of minorities in Europe

Mag. Daniela Süssenbacher, assistant lecturer IPKW
The town as a medium of orientation.
Culture theoretical reflections on educational space

6. Public mobilisation for the value and quality control in the media

Huib Evers
Ethical advice for Dutch journalism

Dr Lambros Kaikitis, RCI Limassol
The influence of the television on the youths

Dr Bernd Mikuszeit, IB&M Berlin
Quality control an assessment for didactic multi media products – a requirement of ethical adult education

Christos Giannoulis, RCI Limassol
New technologies in the process of adult education in Cyprus

Professor Dr Hemels, University of Amsterdam
Self-regulation of audiovisual productions in The Netherlands. Kijkwijzer and the development of the European PEGI system for games

7. Selected examples of multi media products on ethical European education